

Andrew Lee

acllee@vt.edu

434 996 1121

688 Beaverdam Rd.
Keswick, VA 22947

- Objective Employment in the field of forestry or wildlife science for summer 2009.
- Education B.S. Wildlife Sciences and Forestry: Environmental Resource Management option; Minor: Biology, expected June 2010. Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech), Blacksburg, VA
GPA: 3.11/4.0 in major for wildlife science and forestry
- Skills Exposure to GIS, knowledgeable in Microsoft Excel and Word and some class work in statistics.
Field work: Timber Cruising techniques, plant identification, fixed and variable radius sampling, vertex hypsometer use. Spring Camp graduate. Certified in basic life support by American Heart Association
- Employment Forestry Technician
Forest Nutrition Cooperative, January 2009
- Data collection on several research trials in Appomattox and on the Reynolds Homestead.
- Montpelier Internship
Orange, VA, May 2008 to August 2008
- Responsible for establishing a baseline inventory system for the proposed demonstration forest.
- Honors and Activities Eagle Scout, 2005
Exchange Hotel and Civil War Museum, Gordonsville VA
- Built a trail filled with crushed brick, and a bridge to civil war era specifications.
- Search and Rescue, 2005 to Present
Training lieutenant for Blacksburg Volunteer Rescue Squad search and rescue team
- Field team member, trained in search tactics, sign cutting, patient packaging and first aid techniques.
- Undergraduate Research, 2008
Data collection and analyzation comparing soil samples from stands of various ages for carbon content and herbaceous cover correlation