

Galen Green
979.268.8004

Title: Assistant Manager / Wildlife Biologist

Agency: 3M Whitetails

Location: Franklin, TX

Job Description: Assist with the establishment and operation of a whitetail breeding and rearing facility specializing in trophy quality whitetail deer.

Duties will include feeding, handling, tagging, capture, transportation, routine veterinary care, assist with AI operations, predator control, and maintenance of holding pens, barn, fences, gates, feeders, and water systems.

Additional responsibilities include managing farm ponds for trophy quality black bass and forage fish, preparing, planting and managing wildlife food plots, and managing a vineyard, orchard, and large garden.

Most work will be outdoors in all kinds of weather. Expect long hours, must be self starter, computer literate, detail oriented and able get along with others.

Qualifications: Ideal Candidate would have experience in these areas:

B.S. in Wildlife & Fisheries Sciences or closely related field.

Experience working with whitetail deer.

Ability to keep and maintain detailed accurate records a must.

Hands on farming experience,

Mechanical aptitude and experience operating and maintaining farming equipment.

Mechanical, plumbing and electrical experience.

Must have reliable transportation.

Non-smoker only.

Salary: 35K plus advancement potential

Last Date to apply: March 15, 2010

Contact: Mark McMillan

E-mail: mmcmillan@genemco.com (Preferred)